Bill Lepp

5-Time Liars Champion of West Virginia

We'd love to have you. We're trying to build something meaningful for our Congregation and for our Community. Something fun and family-friendly. Something educational. Something exceptional. Something that brings people of all ages, ethnicities, and belief systems together. Something unique.

This year marks our sixth annual festival. We've achieved 'critical mass.' And, whatever it is we've got a hold of here, there's some momentum behind it. Our Featured Storytellers this year? It's hard to match this lineup anywhere (save for the National Storytelling Festival in Jonesborough, TN, and perhaps the very largest festivals elsewhere). And you can be a part of it. Please review the many opportunities available inside this brochure, then connect with us. It's easy! And it's tax deductible.

2011 LOWER BRANDYWINE SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Become A Corporate Sponsor

As a sponsor of the Lower Brandywine Storytelling Festival you can have a huge impact on the event and on the community at large. Your sponsorship can help enrich, educate and entertain children, parents, teachers, aspiring tall tale tellers and many, many others. As a sponsor, we'll help you to tell your story, too...in front of an audience that will truly appreciate your contribution. Here's how! We have four Corporate Sponsorship Levels. But we're not so high-falutin' to be able to offer the typical Platinum, Gold, Silver and Bronze Sponsorship Categories. We're a storytelling festival, for crying out loud! We're doing the best we can. Our four levels are:

Level 1 - Inflatable Bunny - $500

These vintage plastic vegetable-eaters are pretty rare these days, except in tales by certain tellers from Halfdollar. But they've always been very generous...and much appreciated. Your gift will guarantee that Bil and Skeeter won't take any pot shots at you in an effort to win a merit badge. So it's kind of a protection racket!

Level 2 - Protege Raccoon - $1000

This level of donor is just now coming into their own. Unfairly stigmatized for taking things from garbage cans, protege raccoons actually find giving quite 'delicious.' When it comes to donations, they certainly do NOT do marsupial impersonations. Some are noted Raccoonteurs.

Level 3 - Bluffalo - $2500

Not 'Buffalo,' but 'Bluffalo.' It's a very spiritual level of sponsorship. Some think this type of philanthropy dates back to the original 'Pasture of Eden.' No bull! It is also believed that those who give at this level will be protected by Montana, the same spirit that watches over the sacred remnant of the herd. You can give as much as you want...but no tipping!

Level 4 - Mentor Moose - $5000

What can be said of this great, galumping giver of gifts, brimming with traditional moose values? Everyone looks up to them. And not just because they're 10-feet tall from hoof to antler. Rather, it's because they look out for those less fortunate...all the little forest 'amuniles,' with the slings and crutches, and X's for eyeballs. We are eternally grateful!

UNDERWRITING OPPORTUNITIES

Become An Individual Underwriter

Storytelling can help bring us all a little closer together, by showing that -- as individuals and as families -- we were never really that far apart to begin with. Whether you're an individual, a family, a fan, an organization, or a foundation, you can make an underwriting donation at a variety of levels. What is the difference between Sponsorship and Underwriting? Just the profile. Underwriting is a bit more understated. It's not quite anonymous...but, for the humbler party, it isn't as big and flashy. You can still make an enormous impact. And your donation can still make all the difference, as you enrich, educate and entertain those same children, parents, teachers, aspiring tall tale tellers and many, many others. Here's how you can make your contribution:

Bil Lepp

Willy Clafin

TAHIRA

Kim Weitkamp

Andy Offutt Irwin
